DAY 2: PRIVATE SUNRISE VISIT TO THE SPHINX, VALLEY TEMPLE, & GIZA PYRAMIDS

We start our day with a private visit between the paws of the Great Sphinx (pre-opening) to enjoy a spectacular sunrise, opening meditation, and exploration inside the sphinx enclosure. We discuss the mysteries of the Sphinx and show you the evidence for the water erosion theory and lost civilization theory. We will also see the Khafre Valley Temple with its alabaster floors and enormous stone blocks intricately and precisely fitted together. We discuss advanced engineering techniques.

After breakfast we continue exploring the Giza Pyramids Plateau getting to know more about the history and mysteries of Ancient Egypt.

Overnight: Overnight: Overnight: Cairo Pyramids - Steigenberger -Hotel (Breakfast).

FRIDAY, MARCH 10TH

DAY 3: SAQQARA; SERAPEUM, UNAS PYRAMID, DJOSER COMPLEX + DAHSHUR; RED PYRAMID, BENT PYRAMID

After breakfast, we travel to Saqqara (Sakkara) to experience the work of Imhotep, genius architect during the rule of King Djoser (Dynasty III) and builder of the Step Pyramid. The world's oldest freestanding stone structure, this pyramid consists of six tiers atop a mastaba, or low, oblong tomb, faced with cut stone.

We also visit the Pyramid of Unas for an esoteric lesson before exploring the deeply mysterious Serapeum. The usual explanation given by the Egyptologists is that it served as the burial place of the Apis bulls, which were incarnations of the deity Ptah. It was believed that the bulls became immortal after death as Osiris Apis. Some debate this, but the real mystery here is the evidence for high technology that some believe suggest otherwise.

Next we travel to Dahshur, where we see the Red Pyramid and Bent Pyramid, which was closed for many, many years. The Bent Pyramid at Dashur just recently opened for visitors for the first time in over 50 years! Dahshur holds the Black, White & Red Pyramids on its territory.

Overnight: Overnight: Cairo Pyramids - Steigenberger -Hotel - (Breakfast)

SATURDAY, MARCH 11TH

DAY 4: FLY TO LUXOR; LUXOR MUSEUM + LUXOR TEMPLE OF MAN

Following breakfast, we head to Cairo airport to fly to Luxor.

*Upon arrival, we visit the Luxor museum,
Home to a remarkable collection that symbolist author and rogue Egyptologist, John Anthony West considered to be "one of the greatest finds in all of Egyptology".*

In the evening and under the stars we shall experience the ,multi-dimensional textbook known as the Luxor Temple, where R.A Schwaller de Lubicz spent 15 years developing his 'symbolist' interpretation of ancient Egypt, dubbing it the "Temple of Man". A lesson and experience in the Sacred Science awaits!

Overnight: Sonesta St. George Luxor Hotel - (Breakfast)

SUNDAY, MARCH 12TH

DAY 5: ABYDOS; TEMPLE OF SETI I + VIP PRIVATE VISIT
TO THE OSIREION + DENDERA TEMPLE OF HATHOR

After a beautiful breakfast buffet, we'll drive through the country side of Upper Egypt to visit Abydos and explore the temple of the Osiris, built by Seti I, father of Ramesses the Great. Here you will have your first introduction to Sacred Symbolism. Behind the Temple we will see the "Flower of Life" depicted on the enormous megalithic stone pillars of the Osirion, one of the most powerful, mysterious, and resonant places of all Egypt. While some Egyptologists maintain that is a replica of a New Kingdom tomb, alternative historians believe it is a major piece of evidence for the lost civilization theory.

Then we visit the Dendera "Temple of Hathor" which is entirely Ptolemaic/Graeco-Roman, (ca. 150 BC - 80 AD) and consecrated to Hathor (Het-Hert), the Cosmic Feminine in her roles of Mistress of the Cycles of Time and nourishing Mother of the Universe. It's here that we get our first real taste of what time is doing to Egypt. While the knowledge of geometry, harmony, proportion and measure are still intact, we can see how the exquisite and apparently effortless virtuosity of New Kingdom art and sculpture has turned unwieldy, clumsy, and uninspired. It's a fascinating lesson for us watching Egypt degenerate and this is the first among many examples.

Overnight: Sonesta St. George Luxor Hotel - (Breakfast, lunch)

MONDAY, MARCH 13TH

DAY 6: WEST BANK: HATSHEPSUT TEMPLE, DEIR EL-MEDINA, VALLEY OF THE KINGS, RAMESSEUM, COLOSSI OF MEMNON - NILE CRUISE

The West Bank is entirely funerary in significance; here we have the massive funerary complexes of the New Kingdom, the Valley of the Kings, where all New Kingdom pharaohs are buried, and the well-preserved tombs of the Nobles — related to those we see at Saqqara (Sakkara) but markedly different in execution and expression.

This is a day much devoted to discussions of Egypt's complex and mysterious funerary beliefs and practices. Even to the New Kingdom Egyptian scribes recording the texts, they are 'mysterious', but in the broadest sense they're comprehensible; they combine the separate but intertwined doctrines: the path of Horus (which becomes the doctrine of 'salvation' in Christian doctrine) and the doctrine of reincarnation (corresponding loosely to the Vedic/Buddhist tradition).

We visit the great (but controversial) Queen Hatshepsut's Temple of Deir El Bahari, another example of a temple with a peculiarly 'modern' look to it. To the ancient Egyptians it was 'the most splendid of all' — and so it must have been. Even in its present restored state it's pretty spectacular. You will also see the legendary and massive monumental Colossi of Memnon stone statues of Amenhotep III (1386-1353 BCE)!

Overnight: Nile Cruise- (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

TUESDAY, MARCH 14TH

DAY 7: KARNAK TEMPLE - NILE CRUISE

Early visit to the vast Karnak Temple complex, consecrated to Amon in his role of animator of form, the 'breath of life across the waters'. Each major temple at Luxor represents one stage in their (and our!) cosmology, stages in the genesis of the universe. Huge joyous processions connected one temple to another. So the Egyptians, through an act of conscious deliberate sympathetic magic, were themselves mimicking and therefore participating in the process of creation itself. We can no longer do this — we've lost the necessary magic spell to access it — but the power of these temples provides an echo, an inkling, an appreciation of what life had once been like, when a genuine civilization, itself in a cosmologically ordained descending octave, last prevailed.

We do a private meditation session in a secluded Sekhmet Shrine in the company of the great Goddess' granite embodiment. Sekhmet is the female aspect of the initiating fire principle. She personifies the nourishing solar rays. The lioness, fierce yet protective of has the power to both hurt and heal.

We leave Karnak awed, humbled, exhilarated and — very much looking forward to a late breakfast.

Overnight: Nile Cruise- (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15TH

DAY 8: EDFU TEMPLE OF HORUS + KOM COMBO - NILE CRUISE

Edfu Temple of Horus, “the Falcon God”, is one best preserved temples of the ancient world, consecrated to Horus of Behdet; that is, Horus in his specific role of avenger of the murder of his father, Osiris. There are many intriguing and important lessons to convey.

Kom Ombo is consecrated to the duo of Sobek, the crocodile neter (Death as a cosmic function) and Horus, the Elder (Return to the Source as a cosmic function). Beautifully sited on a bend of the Nile, but now photogenically ruinous, Kom Ombo was in its day a healing temple, hospital, and place for initiations to be conferred.

Overnight: Nile Cruise- (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

THURSDAY, MARCH 16TH

DAY 9: ASWAN QUARRY; UNFINISHED OBELISK + PHILAE TEMPLE OF ISIS - NILE CRUISE

We will examine the Unfinished Obelisk at the ancient granite quarries, where a planned, half-excavated 1200 ton single block of granite failed to make it out of the bedrock. Here we get a good taste of Egyptian technology in action. The usual explanation here is what is next to impossible to convey anywhere else in Egypt: how with very simple tools the Egyptians managed to accomplish what is practically impossible to accomplish even with modern machines — but even so, plenty of mysteries remain. You will see evidence of several different techniques of quarrying stone that date to various time periods.

Then we cross the water to Philae Temple, consecrated to Isis (Auset), often depicted with the throne, or “seat of power” in her role of Mother of Horus (the Christians changed her name to the Virgin Mary, but she's Isis, like it or not). Isis is associated with the ancient Egyptians most revered star, Sirius. Philae is on an island in the middle of the Nile (now it's the lake backed up behind the British 'Low Dam' built in 1904.) Quintessentially feminine, it is one of the most beautiful and moving sites in all of Egypt, despite the relatively inelegant quality of the Ptolemaic relief work and the wholesale, but telling selective defacing. It's here that the transition of the ancient Egypt doctrine of Immortality segues almost seamlessly into Christianity in front of our eyes.
